Good morning,

The Lincolnshire Resilience Forum has asked me to share the attached poster with you about raising awareness of domestic abuse during the current pandemic.

They have asked for your help in promoting the support available in your community for women, men and children who are experiencing domestic abuse.

If you are able to share this poster in your community such as through social media channels or on your websites, it would be very much appreciated.

An article about the poster from Lincolnshire Police can be found here:

<https://www.lincs.police.uk/news-campaigns/news/2020/domestic-abuse-posters-made-available/>

There is a wide range of help to support people experiencing domestic abuse online, over the phone or through virtual routes.

Information is also available on the Lincolnshire County Council's website:

<https://www.lincolnshire.gov.uk/advice-support/domestic-abuse-1/1>

And on the police website: <https://www.lincs.police.uk/reporting-advice/domestic-abuse/>

Thank you for your continued support in getting vital information out to communities in Lincolnshire during this time.

Kind regards,

Bex Allen
